

Muscle Activation Techniques™

Certified Specialist

Be it known that

John Murphy

has successfully completed the written and practical examinations required and is hereby accorded the title Muscle Activation Techniques™ Specialist.

The Muscle Activation Techniques™ Specialist will adhere to the principles of mastery. Throughout the journey to which this Specialist has committed himself, MAT is only a step in the life long process of understanding the intricacies of the human body. As a committed professional in the health and fitness industry, the MAT Specialist is ethically obligated to take the skills learned through the ten month internship program and continually improve upon them. He will always respect the rights of each client to be treated individually and to the best of his abilities, and will strive to support the knowledge base of fellow practitioners.
